O bituary AUBREY, TEXAS

Francis (Frank) C. McCune III, 54 years of age, of Aubrey, Texas, passed away unexpectedly Friday, July 8, 2022 at UH-Portage Medical Center in Ravenna, Ohio. Frank was born November 3, 1967 in Erie, Pennsylvania, the son of Francis C. and Margaret (Hernon) McCune, Jr. Frank formerly resided in Auburn Township, and had attended Kenston High School. He had resided in Texas the past 16 years, where he was employed at Brandon Industries Inc. as a warehouse supervisor. Frank was a member of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Frisco, Texas. An avid fan of all Ohio sports teams, he will be remembered as a man who was always there to help other people. He enjoyed fixing things for family and friends, loved all animals, and was supportive of all of his nieces and nephews ventures. While his sudden passing leaves a void in the hearts of family and friends, the cherished memories he created with them will remain forever. On June 29, 2007 he married Angela (Perigo) McCune who survives at home. Also surviving is his mother Margaret McCune of Cleveland; sister Mary McCune of Boston, Massachusetts, and brother Patrick (Suzie) McCune of Cleveland, nieces Izabella, Amanda, Emilee, Ava, Eden and nephew Brandon. His god-daughters Gabi and Eliona, as well as extended family in Auburn Township, Aurora, and Texas survive. His father Frances C. McCune, Jr. preceded him in death in 2009. Cremation has taken place. Memorial calling hours will be held Saturday, July 16, 2022 from 2:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. at the Green Family Funeral Home & Crematory Service, 4668 Pioneer Trail, at the corner of St. Rt. 44, Mantua, Ohio, 44255. Spaces that feel "empty" without you in them will never be the same again. I continue to pray for your family. Be at peace my friend. Robert Guthrie
