My condolences to Bobs family.I spent of the happiest days in my memory in the company of Bonby Crowder. We spent many days together in the company of friends, hunting and fishing together. Bob and I went to school together in Aurora in the 60's and we're friends for 60 years. He always tried to do the right thing. He was always ready to laugh. I know he's in a good place now. Look forward to seeing him again one day.
