Bo was one of the best humans that I have ever met. His stories and how he remembered things was just so fun! He loved and respected his family and was very proud of them. A true hard worker and a proud American! If you had a problem with Bo, you were the problem. He was a blast to jam with as he was a fun and talented musician on top of everything else that made him such a wonderful guy that I was blessed to call a close friend. He will be greatly missed by my entire family. Absolutely a dear family friend. I will always be blessed to think back at all the fun stuff that we did together. From my brother and I almost dropping his boat off the trailer, him looking out the back of his truck yelling Stop #^&$ around (This was not planned, one of those wow, that was a close call, but funny to look back at) to just hanging out doing nothing. He was just a blast to be around! God bless his family and closest friends. This is a tough one on all of us.
