I am completely heartbroken for my brother Brians mother and his sisters and children. I have very many memories of the children when they were young but moved to Florida and didnt get to share in many of the children's milestones. But the memories that my nephew Brian left me will never ever be forgotten. He was always so respectful to me always! Words cant explain how sweet and respectful, he always called me Aunt Cindy. even as a grown man. I will always remember his cute smile! He was always so genuine and loving. I am still in such disbelief that he is now an angel. I know he is looking down smiling seeing all the love we have for him. I love you Brian. Until then.
