Dan and family, I was so sorry to hear of Bev's passing. I have fond memories of Bev and your family when I was younger and lived across the street from you in Charlestown. I am keeping you and the family in my prayers during this difficult time.

Bev was a unique lady. She was a no holds bar, didn't take any crap, would do anything for anybody type of lady, and that's what I loved about her. We shared laughter, tears, and secrets. I will miss our talks we used to have, but will always remember her laughter and big, kind heart. Rest in peace, you will be missed. Becky & Carl
