O bituary STREETSBORO

Ronald Whitcomb, 79 years of age, passed away Friday January 10, 2020 at his residence. Born in Lyndhurst, Ohio on October 25, 1940, he was the son of the late Walter and Aida (Spice) Whitcomb. Mr. Whitcomb grew up in the Cleveland area, moving to Streetsboro 45 years ago. He had been employed as a truck driver for Don Hamilton Trucking in Bedford until his retirement, and was a member of the Teamsters. Ron enjoyed restoring cars that included his 56 Chevy, traveling with family and friends, and will be remembered as a “People Person” to those who came to know him. Cherished memories will never be forgotten of his support in attending his grandchildren’s sporting events. On August 15, 1970, he married Mary Louise Whitcomb who preceded him in death on August 24, 2019. Also preceding were his siblings William and Dick Whitcomb and Doris Whitcomb. He is survived by his son Ron (Natalie) Whitcomb of Streetsboro and daughter Brenda (Brad) Hammel of Sagamore Hills; siblings Walt (Hilde) Whitcomb of Streetsboro and Jean Paden of Lyndhurst, and his grandchildren Kaleb, Kameron, Mia and Ryan. No services. Cremation has been held. Arrangements are by the Green Family Funeral Home & Crematory Service in Mantua where condolences and memories may be viewed at www.greenfamilyfuneralhome.com.

I worked at Streetsboro McDonalds 12 years ago for 2 years or so and got to knpw Walt and Ronnie both well durring that time. I always loved chit chatting with them in the morning when theyd come in for coffee and to hear Ron making jokes at Walt's expense. So sorry to hear of his passing, your whole family are in my thoughts durring this difficult time.
