So sorry for your loss. I knew Roy or "Foof" through his wife Myrtle. I was a Hospice Aide that cared for her through Robinson Memorial Hospital. I really took to both of them very quickly. They were both so funny and had a deep love for each other. I remember being amazed about him playing baseball at his age. I work Tuesday evening or else I would be at the service for sure! Just wanted to let you know how much I got from them be being in their presence.
