Uncle Terry...I can't thank you enough for how much you impacted my dad's (Dave Simpson) life. You were a true and dear friend. He had such great times with you at Parker Hannifin and with all the shenanigans you two partook in outside of work. Thank you for the time you took with me when I was home last. Love you so much and so grateful to have had you in our lives.

Through the years and all the miles, there are those whom we NEVER forget. Terry is one of them. I can't remember the reason, but many of us at Myron T. Herrick Junior High School referred to him as, "Ku-Jay." If you can locate a 1960 class photo, you'll instantly spot that magnetic smile! If you're prone to comparisons, I'd say he was the BETA version of, "The Fonz." Rest well, my fellow veteran!!!
