To Judy and family: Was able to meet and know Wayne through his days at Crown Mold in Streetsboro - as he moved on to many great accomplishments we were able to keep in touch I always enjoyed talking with him. One of my children's fondest memories was being invited to one of your day after Thanksgiving parties and having Wayne coach them in the art of shooting tin cans!! He was certainly a special person and one that I will never forget.....God bless your entire family

Uncle Godfather Wayne! I will miss you, but look forward to when we meet again. Your accordion playing always inspired and entertained us. You always were the life of the party and in heaven may you rejoice and continue to bring joy! To Aunt Judy and Holly and Wendy, our deepest sympathy and prayers will continue for your peace and comfort in knowing that our Lord God will heal all our sorrows. Love you all! Toni
