My heartfelt sincere condolences and prayers are with the family of Emil Vogias. Emil was a good friend and former co-worker. He was a people person as shown throughout his diverse careers. He was a proud Vietnam Veteran. He always boasted of his love for his wife, Debra and daughters Megan and Katie. He will truly be missed physically but remain with most of us memorably. My sympathies to Cynthia and the Vogias Family. My mother Thelam knew Emil's parents, as well as myself knowing Cynthia from taking piano lessons at Mrs Luli's. I think of the Vogias Family every time I pass your old house in Twin Lakes. He looks so much like your dad did. May you remember all the happiest memories of him and find peace within all he did.
