My sincere condolences on your tremendous loss. Rick was a gentle soul who had a kind heart. He helped me greatly when I had to say goodbye to my dog, Boo, earlier this year. Boo loved Rick. The thought that maybe they are now together makes me smile. Rick's kind heart will never be forgotten.

You were a loyal friend and a constant presence in my life. I will miss our daily text messages and routine phone calls. We looked out for one another on a regular basis. We had each other's back. You were funny, witty and always saw the bright side of things. You made people laugh. You were often the life of the party. You knew how to make others feel good. You volunteered your weekend time sit with elderly friends in the nursing home. I know they really appreciated it. You loved your dogs and volunteered so much of your time to the rescue. I always thought that you would be repaid ten times over for all the good that you did for others. The outpouring of care and concern for your wellbeing is evidence of the bond that you created with others. Your time here was too short. I fully expected we would be sitting poolside at Cheshire Place sharing stories well into retirement. I'll miss you, Rick.
