A Streetsboro resident since 1971, Mr. Pyles had been employed as a machine operator at Filmco for 37 years, retiring in 2002. He was a U.S. Air Force veteran honorably serving his country. His family will also always remember the "Unique method that Bernard had for taking care of his fish tank", which will bring a smile to their faces in times to come. On February 2, 1960, he married Loretta (Weaver) Pyles who survives at their home. Also surviving are his children Tina (Douglas) McMullen of Hiram and Christine (Jay) Woodson, Jr. of Streetsboro; siblings Carl Pyles and Patricia Bland both of Farmington, West Virginia; 4 grandchildren Tara (Jason) Gage, John (Alyse) McMullen, Laura (William) Prochazka and Serena Woodson, and 3 great-grandchildren Haley, Matthew and Maximillian. He was preceded in death by his siblings Lawrence Pyles, Jo Ann Green, and Katherine Pyles. Cremation has taken place.
