Robert J. Freiberg, Jr

JUL 27, 2015

CHARDON Robert J. "Bob" Freiberg, Jr., 34 years of age, passed away Monday July 27, 2015.

Born in Ravenna, Ohio on January 28, 1981, he was the son of Robert J. and Debra J. (Campbell) Freiberg, Sr. A resident of the Chardon area since 2002, Bob was a former longtime Hiram resident, and was a 2000 graduate of Crestwood Schools and Maplewood Career Center.

He had been employed the past 9 years at Vintage & Auto Rebuild in Chardon as a metal fabricator of vintage automobiles. Bob was a Pittsburg Steelers fan in the true sense, his enthusiasm including a "Steelers truck" that he built and painted with detail beyond belief.

Bob will forever be remembered as a loving husband, father, son, brother and friend to everyone his life crossed paths with. His devotion to A.J. and Jake included so many special times, especially at Halloween when he built a Haunted House for them to share with dad. Bob was blessed with a work ethic and talent for his passion of metal fabrication of the automobiles he was entrusted with which was second to none.

On April 12, 2003, Bob married his beloved Kasey Bally, who along with his loving sons A.J. Bally-Freiberg and Jake Bally-Freiberg survive at their home. He is also survived by his devoted parents Robert and Debra Freiberg, Sr. and his dear sister Christina Freiberg all of Hiram, his dear in-laws Mike and Nancy Bally and sister-in-law Nicole Arra all of Elyria and many other dear family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Steven and Margaret Freiberg. No calling hours. Cremation has taken place.

A Celebration of His Life Service will be held Saturday August 1, 2015, 2:30 P.M. at the Green Family Funeral Home & Crematory Service.
