Grace M. Handley

MAR 19, 2013

MARIENVILLE, PA. Grace M. Handley, 85 years of age, passed away Tuesday March 19, 2013 at Maplewood Care Center in Streetsboro, Ohio.

Born January 20, 1928 in Bedford, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late Harlon and Cora (Miller) Easterlin. Mrs. Handley grew up in Bedford where she graduated from Bedford High School. A longtime resident of Macedonia, she and her husband operated Handley Upholstery in Macedonia, moving their business to Pennsylvania in 1970. She also had been employed at Bedford Hospital for 2 years.

Mrs. Handley was baptized in 1951 as a Jehovah Witness, remaining a faithful member until her passing at which time she was a member of Jehovah's Witnesses Brookville, Pennsylvania Congregation. While she enjoyed reading and playing cards, Mrs. Handley loved playing the piano for the entertainment of not only herself, but of family and her many friends.

In October of 1947, she married Walter L. Handley who preceded her in death in 1990. Survivors include her son David (Sharon) Handley of Akron, her daughter Joan (Richard) Kollman of Shalersville, 5 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

No calling hours or services. Mrs. Handley was laid to rest at Northfield- Macedonia Cemetery. The family of Mrs. Handley would like to extend a special appreciation to her many friends in both Pennsylvania and Ohio for their visits and sharing time with her which truly did mean so much, as well as to the entire staff at Maplewood Care Center for the care and love extended to her and her family.
