Bobby was my grandparents neighbor, so when we visited them we always would see Bobby and his wife Myrtle (sp?). I was the youngest, so I remember being able to play with the boys. He was known by all of our family for his jokes, and a smile on his face. So sorry to hear of your loss, Terri Resh

I went to school with Jim. I have family who went to school with Mr. Chaykowski. I saw him last year with his youngest son. We were at the same office for appointments. I only had a few minutes, but we chatted about how he remembered my uncle and my aunt from school. My best to the family.

We went to school with Bob, always a happy man. He made you smile when you talked to him. He loved to be part in the Mantua Minstrel show years ago.. Prayers to the family.
