Lucy F. Sas (nee Podojil), age 92 of Mantua, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family, Thursday, December 21, 2023. Born in Cleveland, Ohio May 25, 1931 to the late Vincent and Antoinette (Podowski) Podojil. Lucy graduated from Garfield Heights High School and in 1951 she married her husband, John S. Sas who preceded her in death.

Lucy was a very active volunteer with many organizations that were important to her and a 30 year member of St. Joseph Catholic Church. She loved gardening, bowling, participating in adult water aerobics and feeding the birds but her greatest passion was her children and grandchildren.

Lucy is survived by her 3 daughters, Susan Wyglendowski (Michael), Roseann Guth (Robert), Sallyann Greenwell; a son Andrew Sas (the late Gail); 7 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren and a sister, Rose Ivers (the late Donald). Preceding her in death were her brothers Vincent Sas and Anthony Sas (wife Emma, surviving) and a sister Anna Kuznik (the late Frank).

No services to be held. Please feed the birds in honor of her memory.
