As soon as I seen the obituary for Rene' I tried to write about her over and over but , I am unable to because it is to painful for me . I just needed to let the family know that I have tried and that I will when I am able. I am very sorry. My heart goes out to all the family . I pray for peace in your hearts . Sincerely, Lisa 🙏❤️

There are so many amazing memories I have of her. I am so sad to hear of this news but I'm glad she is with her hubby and Mom. I have missed her since we went separate ways after having kids. Oh how I have missed you even before you were gone. I'm sorry you got grounded that one time and I didn't. I even remember the smell of your shampoo. The bus rides to jvs were so much fun. You've always been in my heart and always will be, my sweet awesome cool friend Rene'

I took care of Rene for a little while, a few years ago. It never did feel like I was at work when I was there. Rene had become a really good friend to me. She was an amazing, strong, funny, and a smart woman. She always laughed at the word "poop" thought it was such a funny word. I found a poop stuffed emoji she always kept on her table near her. I am truly lucky to have been able to meet her and get to know her. I am so very sorry for the daughters, and families loss. Will forever remember her ❤️
